U.S. Tests to Bring Heavy Pressure

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

GENEVA (AP) — The United States appeared almost certain today to come under heavy pressure from several nonnuclear nations in the disarmament conference to suspend its plans for a series of nuclear weapons tests in the atmosphere starting next month.

Brazil has taken the lead among the eight nation middle bloc of the conference in arguing that, even without an international inspection system, atmospheric tests can be stopped now because they are detectable over great distances.

At the heart of the developing struggle is President Kennedy's announced plan to go ahead with atmospheric tests in late April unless Russia signs a test-ban treaty providing for international inspection.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko told U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk privately last Sunday that the Soviet government would not accept international inspection for a test ban. Soviet Ambassador Semyon K. Tsarapkin announced the position at a news conference Friday. He contended national inspection systems were sufficient to police a prohibition on testing.

U.S. officials regarded the Soviet declarations as a public rejection of Kennedy's terms. But they said they would not accept it as Moscow's last word on the issue. The President's offer remains open should the Soviets change their policy.

The position developing among the middle bloc of nations, however, threatens to make the tests than a U.S.-Soviet issue. If the stand taken by Brazil finds support, U.S. diplomats would face a major challenge in winning acceptance of the American test plan.

Brazilian delegates said they believed that Russia and the United States could agree on a suspension of nuclear tests in the air, probably before the United States started its new series.

The Brazilian stand is closer to the Soviet Union's than to that of the United States. Since the Russians fired a series of about 50 test explosions in the air last fall, the immediate problem is one for Washington rather than Moscow.

Only a basic change of policy by President Kennedy would permit U.S. agreement to the suspension called for in the Brazilian proposition.

Since the President has in fact already ruled out such a suspension, the practical problem for him and Secretary of State Rusk appears to be to convince the middle bloc countries that Western security requires further development of U.S. nuclear weapons to offset gains achieved by the Soviet Union last fall.

The conference was in recess for the weekend after three sessions beginning with a ceremonial opening Wednesday.

Accepts Hendrix Scholarship

BLYTHEVILLE (AP) — Mickey Johnson of Blytheville, leading scorer in the Big Nine Conference this past basketball season, has agreed to accept a scholarship at Hendrix College.

Johnson is 6-3 1-2. He averaged about 15 points a game this season.

Last year Blytheville had two Big Nine players—Wes Crawford and Kent Ritchey—who went to Hendrix.

Another Test Underway

WASHINGTON (AP) — Another low yield underground nuclear shot with the blast equivalent of not more than 20,000 tons of TNT has been touched off in the Atomic Energy Commission's Nevada test site. Thursday's test was the 22nd announced in the current series.

Agents Not Consistant, Fordyce Says

By HOWARD BENEDICT

FORDYCE, Ark. (AP) — A special team of Internal Revenue Service tax agents were to abandon Fordyce today, leaving residents to breathe a sigh of relief. Since the task force of about 30 agents arrived here March 5 and began calling in taxpayers for audits of their returns, businessmen claim a 50 per cent slump in sales. Townspies suffered a mass case of jitters.

The IRS says the survey was "an experimental thing, an effort to see if the operation could be made more useful and efficient." But the people thought otherwise.

Kelsey Caplinger, a clothing store operator, said "the tax people are very courteous, but they're not consistent. For instance, two preachers were allowed to deduct mileage, but a third was not." Even church offerings were affected, according to Rev. Charles Ashcraft, pastor of the First Methodist church. Ashcraft said the tax check "had about the same effect economically as a tornado" and that offerings at his church had decreased 25 per cent.

The IRS wouldn't say how many returns it checked in Fordyce and Continued on Page Two

Red Cross Spends $500,000 on Coast

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Red Cross expects to spend about $500,000 helping victims of last week's East Coast storm get back on their feet.

The Red Cross said Thursday the money will go for emergency and long-term aid, including rehabilitation grants.

More than 4,000 persons who suffered property losses in the storm are expected to receive this aid, a spokesman said.

Storm relief expenditures are in addition to an estimated $577,000 to be spent helping people recover from floods in Kentucky, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana, the Red Cross said.

The organization appealed for contributions to help pay for aid to storm and flood victims.

Carpenter to Be Next Astronaut

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Malcolm Scott Carpenter, selected suddenly as America's next space pilot, has said often that the conquest of space is an adventure he's willing to give his life for.

The risks, he says, are far overshadowed by the challenge, the chance to be a pioneer in manned exploration of the universe.

Carpenter, 36, a Navy commander, was picked Thursday to ride the next Project Mercury capsule into orbit. His selection by Mercury officials followed disclosure that the designated pilot, Air Force Maj. Donald K. Slayton, has heart trouble.

Carpenter's flight is intended to be very similar to John H. Glenn Jr.'s three-times-around-the-world orbit on Feb. 20. It is scheduled for sometime in May.

Carpenter was Glenn's backup pilot and worked closely with him for months.

This nation's next space pilot has dreamed often of traveling into the unknown void of space. "Riding the centrifuge," Carpenter says, "I imagine sometimes that I'm not in the flight simulator at all, but in the very capsule itself."

"There can be no substitute, though, for the thrilling reality of the moment when the astronaut realizes he's finally in a good orbit. It will be a moment when he can start to appreciate some new and wonderful sensations."

With four children, the handsome, Colorado-born Carpenter has the largest family of the astronaut team. The children are Mark Scott, 12; Robyn Jay, 8; Kristine Elaine, 6; and Candace Nixon, 5. A fifth child died in 1951 at the age of 6 months.

Carpenter's attractive wife, Renee, shares his space role in. When they are separated for long periods by his rigorous training program, they write long letters. He tells in detail of the progress of Project Mercury and Renee says he once

Now Castro Says People Being Abused

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro charged today that Cuba's revolutionary leaders were abusing their authority, mistreating the public and creating general chaos.

Sweeping changes must be

"The revolution needs to revise all the revolutionary nuclei and all the political apparatus of the revolution to do away with the errors and abuses and to gain good performance," he declared in a televised address monitored here.

"We have to stop tolerating poor performance and errors," he said. "Those who are useless will not continue in their positions."

Castro singled out no individuals but he had particularly biting criticism for the revolutionary defense committees. These groups—with representatives in every city block, in all factories and on farms—are responsible for watching their neighbors and coworkers for signs of counterrevolutionary attitudes.

His sharp denunciation came during a postmidnight speech, his second attack of the week on his own regime. He ordered rationing Monday and criticized Cuba for not meeting food production goals.

The prime minister said he had talked a few days ago with several women who complained they had been humiliated in public and treated as counterrevolutionaries when they actually supported the regime wholeheartedly.

"We have to increase public vigilance against errors and injustices," he shouted. "No one has the right to commit injustices and he who does so is an enemy of the revolution."

"Some people, he said, "think they are more revolutionary than anybody and have the right to mistreat and humiliate others. There are people who have created chaos in the organisms of the state with their mania for putting and taking and their abuse of authority."

Castro addressed graduates of a school for women who will train former domestic workers in other skills.

He called for complete equality of the sexes—"a day in which the women may work equally with men and have the same opportunities. Only without privileges, without sectarianism of any class can the errors, injustices and wrongs of the political apparatus be rectified."

Castro's address climaxed a week during which he surged back into the limelight after a period of apparent retirement that brought rumors he was being eased out as Cuba's leader.

Ordinances Have to Be Published

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office said Thursday a city government must publish all its general and permanent ordinances and bylaws in a newspaper, if the community has one.

The opinion went to North Little Rock Alderman Paul O. Duke who said he believed the city could save money by publishing only headings of ordinances and resolutions.

The opinion, by Asst. Atty. Gen. Milton H. Hale, said further that if no newspaper exists in the community, notices must be placed in at least five public places.

Signals From Red Satellite

BOCHUM, Germany (AP) — The Bochum Observatory announced today it has picked up signals from what seemed to be a Soviet space ship.

The observatory said the signals were received between 3:00 p.m. (9:00 a.m. EST) and 3:24 p.m. on the same frequencies used by broadcasts from the capsules of Soviet cosmonauts Yuri Gagarin and Gherman Titov.

The altitude of the new satellite was estimated to be around 173 miles.

Time for one complete orbit was estimated to be about 92 minutes, the observatory said.

Marriage Boom Is Predicted

WASHINGTON (AP) — A government statistician says a major marriage boom is coming in the United States.

Dr. Forrest E. Lindner, director of the National Center for Health Statistics, made the prediction and asked a House Appropriations group for more funds to help keep track of it.

Lindner, in testimony made public Thursday, said boys and girls born in the high birth-rate period that followed World War II are reaching marriage age now.

Top American Communists Are Arrested

NEW YORK (AP) — Two top-ranking American Reds, Gus Hall and Benjamin J. Davis, have been arrested in the first crackdown on Communist party officials who refuse to register the party with the government under the Subversive Activities Control Act.

They were allowed to go free overnight, but were ordered to post bail of $5,000 each today. Hall, 51, and Davis, 58, were arrested by U.S. marshals late Thursday at the American Communist party headquarters in the Chelsea section of Manhattan.

The arrests were made on warrants shortly after a federal grand jury in Washington indicted the two men on six counts each. Hall was listed as the Communist party's general secretary and Davis as national secretary. Davis, a Negro, was a member of the New York City Council years ago when a short-lived proportional representation system made it possible for a candidate of such a minority party to get elected.

Both Hall and Davis have served prison terms on Smith Act convictions for conspiracy to teach and advocate overthrow of the government by force and violence.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, who announced the indictments, commented in Washington that neither the indictments nor earlier actions by the government in the same field means that the U.S. Communist party is outlawed or that membership in it is illegal.

Registration with the government is required in many fields, he said.

Kennedy said he wanted to clear up misunderstanding that he found overseas during his recent tour.

John Ahl, counsel for Hall and Davis, said here he was certain that both would plead innocent. He said the Communist party takes the position that the 1950 law under which they were indicted is unconstitutional because it violates the privilege against self-incrimination.

If convicted, they would face a possible maximum penalty of five years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine on each count of the six-count indictment.

Publications in Arkansas Cited

NEW YORK (AP) — The Columbia Scholastic Press Association has chosen publications by three Arkansas schools for honors in its 36th annual student newspaper contest.

The Grizzly of Northside High School, Fort Smith, was named to the medalist class for printed newspapers by high schools with an enrollment between 1,501 and 2,500.

West Side Junior High School of Little Rock was named to the first place class for its Junior Life in the enrollment class between 701 and 1,200.

The Echo, produced by Arkansas State Teachers College, Conway, was named to the second division for printed newspapers of colleges and universities.

Northside High School's The Litsmith was selected to the third place class for high school literary and art magazines.

Several medalist, first, second, third and fourth places winners were named for each division. There were over 1,700 entries.

Slayton Out With Heart Condition

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — A heart condition detected more than two years ago will keep astronaut Donald K. Slayton from becoming the next American to venture into space.

The assignment of following along the trail blazed by John H. Glenn Jr. will go instead to M. Scott Carpenter, another member of the seven-man Mercury space team.

The switch in plans was announced Thursday night by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Earlier in the day an Air Force medical board had reviewed Slayton's condition—an "erratic heart rate"—and advised against his attempting the physically trying space mission.

On learning he had been scratched the Air Force major, 36, said "I'm very disappointed to say the least."

The space agency said the heart trouble was detected in November 1959, but it was decided to keep the former jet pilot in the program while keeping a close watch on his condition.

Slayton was to have made the second U.S. orbital flight within the next month or two. Like Glenn he was to have circled the earth three times in a Mercury capsule.

Carpenter, 36, a Navy flier, was Glenn's backup pilot last Feb. 20. He, in turn, will be backed up by astronaut Walter M. Schirra Jr., 38, who was to have filled the same role for Slayton.

While Slayton was disqualified from the next U.S. space flight, a space agency spokesman said he was "still a member of the Mercury program at this time." Further study of his condition will determine whether or not he will continue in it, the spokesman said.

After hearing that he had been replaced Slayton called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slayton, in Sparta, Wis., his hometown.

Mrs. Slayton said she felt sorry for her son. "I know he had his heart set on this, and it is difficult to come so close and not make it."

But the astronaut's father, 74, said he was relieved. He said he had advised his son, "don't let it get you down."

At Boulder, Colo., Florence Carpenter said she was delighted that her son would make the next space flight. "It took my breath away when I first heard the news, but then I calmed down and realized it was what Scott had worked so hard for."

Carpenter is a native of Boulder. He is married and the father of four children. A lieutenant commander, he has been a Navy flier since 1949 and became a test pilot in 1954.

Suggests Change in Attitude

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Winthrop Rockefeller says Arkansans may be over an inferiority complex caused by hillbilly jibes at the state, but he said Arkansas has developed a "down in the mouth" attitude to replace it.

He told a Little Rock civic club Thursday that defeatism was prevalent in the state when he came here nine years ago. The chairman of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission said the defeatist attitude waned, but is waxing strong again.

Rockefeller said he was disturbed by the number of over-65 people in the state, higher than the national average, and the fact that too many of the state's young residents move to other states after graduating from college.

Rockefeller said he saw nothing wrong with the number of retired people in the state, and he said Arkansans could allay the second Mercury astronaut.

Carpenter spends as much of his free time as possible with his family at their home at Langley Air Force Base, Va., home of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's manned space flight center. He enjoys archery, skin-diving and skiing. He is an Episcopalian.

Jonesboro Hikes Teacher's Pay

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Jonesboro school teachers will receive a $150 pay boost during the next school year, while non-teaching employees will get an additional $100 pay, C. H. Geis, superintendent of schools, said Thursday.

The increase will raise minimum salaries for teachers having a bachelor's degree to $3,300 and the maximum to $3,900.

People Attending Church.

MATCHLESS

in power is God. How generously He deals with His world. All of our physical necessities are miraculously supplied by Him. He planned it so all wild creatures could live in abundance. He pointed us human beings to faith in God and challenged us strongly by citing the birds, "Your Father feedeth them." Then pause by the clear stream, take in the fresh air, examine the fruits of His fields and "Be Still and know that He is God." Just who among us would doubt that He gave us the soil, the seed and the sea???

He gave His church for congregating and praising The Lord. It is here He quickens our spirits by the revelation of truth and goodness and feeds our deeper needs with His love and grace. He is the matchless beneficent.

So They May See == Psalm 27 == So They May Hear

THE LORD IS MY LIGHT and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

2. When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

3. Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

4. One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in his temple.

5. For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

6. And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

HEAR, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

8. When thou saidest, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

9. Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

10. When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up.

11. Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

12. Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

13. I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

14. Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.
